Are there any other biographical details you would like to tell us?	I was the Vice President of the Singapore Alumni Association from 2007-2009 and the current President since 2013. www.uomalumni.org.sg The alumni network has benefited me greatly, making and engaging the alumni, be it for personal or business, and hence, established many close friendships and relations within the alumni network in Singapore and the greater Asia regional Hong Kong and China alumni network
Please tell us why you enjoy giving your time to be on the AAAB.	The opportunity to contribute back to the University and getting more involved in a greater capacity and role at the AAAB, beyond the current Singapore and regional alumni association interaction. To be part of the team to help the University strengthen and engage better the global alumni community and particularly the University of Manchester branding.
